PLANT TROLLEY SYSTEM OFFICES

General Offices of Shore Line Electric Railway Company to be Located in Thames Loan & Trust Company Building on Shetucket Street-Unconfirmed Rumor That Norwich Man Will be in General Charge.

The general offices and headquarters of the Shore Line Electric Railway company, which is also generally designated as the Plant system, are to be in this city, in the Thames Loan and Trust company building. The offices here will probably mean that the general offices of the Norwich and Westerly road, now in Westerly; of the Groton and Stonington Street Railway country Mutual Fire Insurance company have been taken by the Shore Line Electric Railway company, and on Friday the carpenters were at work putting in the fixtures to have the offices in shape as soon as possible. The Shore Line electric road is to have not only the office room on the main floor of the building which the insurance company formerly had, but will also have more vault room in the floor.

The location of the general offices of the Shore Line system here will make the stone of the system. These, however, are not confirmed by those in authority to know.

SCHWARTZ BROS. 17th Prize Letter

Norwich, Conn., Jan. 22, 1913.

Schwartz Brothers,

While reading The Bulletin ! noticed your ad wishing your customers to state if they were entirely satisfied with your furniture, etc. So I took this opportunity to say how perfectly satisfied I have been with every article of furniture I purchased from your store.

Two years ago while furnishing my seven-room flat I went around the different furniture stores naturally wishing to get the most value for my money and I can honestly say I think the Schwartz Brothers' store the cheapest and best, also having a large line of goods to suit every customer. So I naturally bought most of my furniture there with the exception of sending to some large firms in Chicago and New York for a few things and considering the freight and expense charges I discovered I could have done much better if I had bought them at your store. So from my experience I can say I think there is no better furniture store to deal with as I have found their goods all perfectly satisfactory. So at any time if I am in need of household furniture or any of my friends we always go direct to the Schwartz Brothers' store. I wish to add also that I have found them strictly hontest in their dealings and their goods just as represented.

I remain your perfectly satisfied customer.
